

George Evan Olsen IV is a Fine Artist specializing in pastel, charcoal and oil portraits. He currently lives in Arlington, Texas and teaches private art classes to students of all ages. He volunteers as an art teacher at Mental Health America of Greater Tarrant County and Lake Ridge High School. He has been featured in galleries such as the Fort Worth Community Arts Center, Bedford Central Arts Gallery, as well as public and private residential art shows. He has a Bachelor degree in Fine Arts and a 2D animation degree.